Cost reduction applies to full tables of 10, booked with one payment by the stated date.
The idea of group booking reductions is to reflect the cost of processing.
No exemptions

For example –

A person organises a table of 10 people who all pay the first person so she can then put in the booking complete with one payment & names of those on the table.

Or

Person books and pays for a table of 10 at a reduced rate by 8th June then organises people to take the places at the table notifying Helen in the WATAC office the names of the people on the table by 17th June.
